

This is to certify that the

IBFD Advanced Professional Certificate in International Taxation (APCIT)

has been awarded to

Niek Pilgram

Presented by the International Bureau of Fiscal Documentation (IBFD)
for successfully completing the 6-month online study programme and final assessment

during the period 1 October 2022 - 31 March 2023

Issued on:

1 April 2023

Jan Maarten Slagter
CEO, IBFD

Victor van Kommer
Director, IBFD Tax Services

IBFD Advanced Professional Certificate in International Taxation (APCIT)

PROGRAMME CONTENT

The content of the programme provided the participant with a comprehensive and practical understanding of international taxation, specifically in the areas of tax treaties, transfer pricing and international tax planning.

The participant also learned the most recent international tax developments from the OECD, UN, European Union and other tax jurisdictions.

The programme consisted of the following phases:

- Phase I: Three (3) online courses plus a case study-based assignment
- Phase II: Twelve (12) webinars and three (3) videos plus a case study-based assignment.
- Phase III: Final Assessment

Skills practised and developed during the programme include the ability to:

- Identify and evaluate comparative aspects of different tax systems
- Relate technical rules to the underlying policy principles
- Assimilate and filter large amounts of technical information
- Apply international tax principles and rules to practical cases

Field of Study	: Taxation
Number of training hours	: 69.5 hours
Programme level	: Advanced
Instructional Method	: Online self-study

Continuing Professional Education (CPE) Credits

Collectively the components of the study programme amount to at least 40 CPE

(IBFD tax trainings may also qualify for CPE credits pursuant to the rules of several professional accrediting bodies. Please check with the relevant body to ensure eligibility in this respect.)

